The Co-Production and Financing Forum will foster and facilitate connections with potential co-production, co-financing, distribution and dissemination partners, with a particular focus on projects that bridge the gap between Europe and Latin America.

This forum is supported by ICEX Spain Export and Investment and will take place on October 1-2, 2024, within the framework of the fourth edition of Iberseries & Platino Industria.

Madrid, April 18, 2024. The fourth edition of Iberseries & Platino Industria is now accepting applications for projects to participate in the Co-Production and Financing Forum, which will take place on October 1-2, 2024. The forum is aimed at Ibero-American filmmakers, directors, producers and cinematographers with feature film, fiction series, docuseries, and animation series projects in advanced stages of development.

The Forum, supported by ICEX Spain Export and Investment, will foster and facilitate connections with potential co-production, co-financing, distribution and dissemination partners, with a particular focus on projects that bridge the gap between Europe and Latin America, through its database of accredited professionals.

The goal is to promote the development of projects with high production value, thereby strengthening co-production models between key players in the Latin America and European audiovisual sectors.

Project producers must submit a budget and financing plan with at least 30% of the production cost already secured.

Iberseries & Platino Industria will select a maximum of 10 fiction series, docuseries and animation projects and a maximum of 10 fiction, documentary and animation feature film projects to participate in the Co-Production and Financing Forum, based on reports prepared by various international experts.

Project managers will have the opportunity to connect with potential co-producers, creative partners, financiers and international sales agents among the accredited professionals attending the event. The Forum organizers will prepare a personalized schedule of one-on-one meetings with professionals interested in the selected projects.

The deadline for submitting applications to the Co-Production and Financing Forum is Thursday, May 23, at 4:00 PM (GMT +2), Madrid, Spain time.

Participants must have a valid accreditation for Iberseries & Platino Industria at the time of registration and be available to attend the Forum in person on the dates it is to be held.

Project registration can be completed via the professional profile on the Iberseries & Platino Industria website, once the professional accreditation process has been formalized.

All information regarding the Co-Production and Financing Forum project application process can be found here.

Iberseries & Platino Industria will be held from October 1 to 4 in Matadero Madrid, with the support of EGEDA and Fundación Secuoya, in collaboration with FIPCA. It will also have the backing of the Community of Madrid, Madrid City Hall, ICEX Spain Export and Investments, and the sponsorship of Madrid Film Office and Film Madrid, among other collaborating entities.
